

About Genesee Valley Plein Air Painters, Inc.

Organized in September, 2005, Genesee Valley Plein Air Painters, Inc. is an artist association that promotes and inspires quality, plein air painting while providing socially pleasant painting opportunities for its membership throughout the year. Our sixty-four artists who paint in the outdoors reside throughout the Genesee Valley, Finger Lakes, and Western New York regions.

The paintings in this art show represent works that have been produced within the past two years and meet the definition of "plein air" as set by this association (85% of paintings completed on site). Plein air means that the work has been painted on site of the subject in "open air" (natural light).

Comments from the judge: First, it was such an honor to have been invited to jury this year's GVPAP plein air art show. The group should be commended on the breadth and quality of the submitted works. The selection process was particularly challenging, especially in deciding the specific paintings that would be included. The level of technical skill and varied themes made the viewing a pleasure.
